

United States Mint Discontinues Presidential $1 Coin Album

February 15, 2011

WASHINGTON — The United States Mint today announced that it is discontinuing future volumes of the Official United States Mint Coin Album – Presidential $1 Coins™.

The custom-designed album was intended to be released in multiple volumes throughout the life of the Presidential $1 Coin Program. Volume One (2007–2008) was issued in 2007 and Volume Two (2009–2010) in 2009. While Volume One was popular, sales of Volume Two dropped substantially. The United States Mint will continue to sell Volumes One and Two of the Official United States Mint Coin Album – Presidential $1 Coins until existing inventories are depleted. Subsequent volumes of the album (2011–2012 and beyond) will not be produced.

The United States Mint Presidential $1 Coin Presentation Folder™ will remain available for purchase at $14.95 each. The folder allows collectors to store and display one coin each in the series of Presidential $1 Coins. For more information, visit <http://www.usmint.gov/catalog> or call 1–800–USA–MINT (872–6468).

The United States Mint, created by Congress in 1792, is the Nation’s sole manufacturer of legal tender coinage and is responsible for producing circulating coinage for the Nation to conduct its trade and commerce. The United States Mint also produces proof, uncirculated and commemorative coins; Congressional Gold Medals; and silver, gold and platinum bullion coins.
